

I listen to K-love radio in my community and it has literally been a life saver for me; a true source of encouragement. If displaced by a LPFM broadcaster, it would be a real loss to many people who rely on the music, inspiration, ministry, prayers and support in their daily lives that K-Love offers.